CENTRAL TROY HISTORIC DISTRICT FOOD TOUR

Since 2016, our flagship tour delves into the heart of Central Troy Historic District with stops at wonderful independent restaurants and notable landmarks. Rediscover this 200+ year historic gem as you experience the vibrant culinary scene that is helping to revitalize this city, lovingly known as the Silicon Valley of the 19th Century. This tour is offered on Saturday mornings ending in time for the amazing Troy Waterfront Farmers' Market. For corporations looking for a team building activity or group outing, we can offer the tour midday on Wednesday, without the market.

- 5 satisfying tastings - enough for a complete brunch/lunch!
- Multiple historical and cultural points of interest.
- Visit to St. Paul's Episcopal Church - with a full Tiffany interior!
- Walk 1.5 miles at a leisurely pace over the course of 3 hours.
- Vegetarian, dairy free, gluten free options available.
- Available Saturdays 10-1, Wednesdays noon-3.
- $68.00/person, includes all taxes and gratuities.

FEATURED PARTNERS

LITTLE PECKS: A neighborhood all-day café from the team behind Peck's Arcade, serving up Tandem Coffee, brunch, lunch, dinner, pastries & snacks.

THE WHISTLING KETTLE: Contemporary cafe and tearoom serving savory crepes, paninis & salads, and of course afternoon tea.

ILLIUM CAFÉ: Located in the oldest building on Monument Square, award winning chef/owner Marla Ortega has become a community staple since 2010.

BROWN'S BREWING COMPANY: The first craft brewery restaurant in the Capital Region, Brown's Brewing Company has had 12 beers on tap since 1993.

THE DUTCH UDDER: From pop-up ice cream shop to downtown hot spot, The Dutch Udder uses New York dairy and local produce from Capital area farms. Try their Philly Vanilla- it was named best in the world in 2017!

FLAGSHIP TOURS

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN ALBANY FOOD TOUR

Our newest tour based in one of the oldest cities in the country and at the base of the rapidly growing Warehouse District. This tour allows you to explore the food print of the rapidly growing craft brewing and culinary scene in historic Albany. The tour is regularly offered on Fridays from 12:45 to 4:00, a leisurely lunch/supper that ends in time to toast in the weekend with happy hour. Alternate weekdays are an option too and larger groups can be accommodated by having one site host all our partners for an inclusive experience.

- 6 satisfying tastings - enough for a complete afternoon meal!
- Multiple historical and cultural points of interest
- Visit the oldest NY church north of Westchester
- Walk 1.5 miles at a leisurely pace over the course of 3.25 hours
- Vegetarian, dairy free, gluten free options available
- Available Tuesday-Friday 12:45-4, inquire for modifications!
- $80.00/person, includes all taxes and gratuities

FEATURED PARTNERS

C.H. EVANS BREWING COMPANY AT THE ALBANY PUMP STATION: Opened in 1786 in Hudson NY, award winning ales were brewed until prohibition in 1920. Neil Evans re-opened the family business in 1999 in the Pump Station, becoming an Albany anchor.

AMA COCINA: Modern Mexican street food with a nod to the food truck scene. Their mission is to encompass the three pillars of life: food, laughter and love!

THE HOLLOW BAR & KITCHEN: Hip spot in a historic building serving American tapas & mains, with rotating craft beer selections and live music.

STACKS ESPRESSO BAR: A cafe and community space, highlighting various brew methods, unique and diverse roasters and experimenting with espresso-based drinks.

OLDE ENGLISH PUB: Pub grub such as fish 'n' chips alongside British beers & single malts in a 1730s brick Colonial.

CIDER BELLY DOUGHNUTS: Rustic-style counter service featuring classic & creative apple cider doughnuts with a mission to create the world's best doughnut experience.

MEET OUR TEAM: AMY KOREN-ROTH, MS, RDN

Amy, founder and forever foodie, is a registered dietitian/nutritionist who is passionate about cooking, travel and exciting others about her food loves and recommendations. She firmly believes that exploring farmers' markets and local cuisine is one of the best ways to learn about a community whether close to home or far away. Amy has traveled extensively in the US and more than 30 countries around the world partaking of food tours, cooking classes, and local markets along the way. Amy has a 20 plus year background in team building for a variety of teams, businesses and group sizes. She launched Taste of Troy Food Tours in May 2016.

TASTE OF TROY FOOD TOURS TESTIMONIALS

“Our office is located in downtown Albany and since this was one of our first company outings, I thought it would be good to start in our own neighborhood. The afternoon went great. Amy took us around to all the local spots for small tastes and drinks from the local restaurants and coffee shops. In between tastes we walked around downtown as Amy talked about the architecture and history of significant buildings, not an easy task as we are an architecture firm that works mostly in historic preservation, but Amy was not intimidated! The afternoon ended with an excellent happy hour and everyone was quite full from all the small plates we had throughout the tour. It was a great break from work and a lovely afternoon. I highly recommend Taste of Troy Food Tours LLC for your next corporate outing”

- Aaron Wilson, 2018

“We started off our friend Ashley’s Bachelorette Party with a Taste of Troy Food Tour! The bride-to-be had friends come in from multiple states, so it was a great way to show them around town, and to get a taste of Upstate New York. Amy was a wonderful tour guide; I’d recommend this to both locals and out-of-towners.

There’s so much to see and great bites to eat! Two thumbs up!”

- Melissa Stankovich, 2016

“Knowledgeable, fun, professional, foodie... Just a few words to describe how delightful Amy is. Our Taste of Troy Food Tour far exceeded our expectations. We didn’t want the tour to end, and it truly left us wanting more!

We look forward to accompanying Amy again on another one of her fabulous food tours”
